What
DRIVES PEOPLE?

PI FUNDAMENTALS

Our What Drives People? workshop gives your employees the tools and insights they need to develop increased self-awareness and a thorough understanding of what motivates their day-to-day behaviors.

In addition to securing a firm grasp of their own behavioral style, an expert PI facilitator will help them better understand their co-workers and celebrate differences, and appreciate the drives involved in a number of critical workplace behaviors.

This workshop will allow your employees to:

- Demystify workplace behaviors

- Leverage a common language built on objectivity and behavioral understanding.

- Understand why people have different work preferences and styles

- Reference a comprehensive inventory of workplace needs and behaviors

- Create a detailed Personal Action Plan

- Understand and celebrate behavioral differences

> This was a great course. It helped me understand myself better and gave me an awareness of varying needs and different motivations.

INSIDE THE WORKSHOP

This fast-paced workshop provides participants with insights and tools to help them decode employee drives, understand their motivating needs, and consider how these play out in the workplace. The lesson provides an introductory crash-course in all things PI, with the essentials to get your team started.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is intended for employees at any level inside a PI client organization. It provides a solid foundation and serves as prerequisite learning for employees who wish to continue their PI learning journey in additional workshops.

This workshop is the first module of the PI Professional Series and precedes the remaining modules. It covers the basics you'll need to continue learning and applying the methodology.
